Vandals hit cemetery

Headstones are toppled at St. John

By Bob Slate
Staff writer

Mary Lammert's headstone had stood tall at her grave in St. John Cemetery here since November 1893 — nearly 100 years.
But hers was one of 49 headstones in the cemetery that were vandalized late Sunday night or early Monday morning.
"I just don't know why anyone would do something like this," Cemetery Superintendent Randy Johns said Monday while checking records to try to restore the damaged headstones.
"It's a disgrace — not to the people who are buried here, but to the people who come to visit them. You can't put a price tag on the grief this has caused," Johns said.
The damage was discovered Monday morning. Johns said that he had been in the cemetery until about 6 p.m. Sunday, and everything was in order at that time.
Police were investigating the damage Monday, but had no suspects. They collected about 35 beer cans, scattered about the cemetery, as evidence, said Capt. Roy Kobern.
Damage to the stones was estimated at more than $10,000.

headstones at random in the cemetery at 2901 Nameoki Road.
Topped stones — some of them weighing as much as 700 pounds — were strewn throughout the length of the cemetery.
Many of them, like Mary Lammert's, had been standing for nearly a century, and time and the weather had worn let-

Fireman charged with obstruction

By Bob Slate
Staff writer

A Granite City fireman has been charged with battery and obstructing a peace officer for allegedly harassing an on-duty female police officer while he was off duty Sunday night.
Greg Hoese, 33, of the 2200 block of Woodlawn Avenue and a Granite City firefighter/paramedic, was charged in misdemeanor warrants issued Tuesday morning.
Hoese allegedly "made physical contact of an insulting nature" by placing his hand on the officer's buttocks while she was investigating an unrelated battery at Eddie's Lounge, 2900 Nameoki Road, according to informations attached to the warrants.
Hoese also allegedly pulled the officer's hair and placed a hat on her head, according to the information.
"It is an unfortunate circumstance, but we cer-

Bridge may reopen soon

By Mike Myers
Staff writer

Officials are hoping the McKinley Bridge — a casualty of the flooding Mississippi — will be able to reopen this week, possibly in time for morning rush hour today (Wednesday).
An engineering review was held Tuesday morning and assistant bridge manager Tom Fields said a decision on reopening would be made by noon.
"If we get the go-ahead, we could be open by the 2 p.m. shift (Tuesday)," he said. "If not, we will go through the same process (Wednesday). It's pretty much day-by-day at this point."
The toll bridge, owned by the city of Venice, was closed July 30 as a safety measure when debris began collecting on a partially sub-

Park pool plans cut back

Summer '94 completion still possible

By Bob Slate
Staff writer

It may not have all the buzzers, bells and whistles once planned, but the new Wilson Park swimming pool can still be completed in time for the next swimming season, a park official says.
"(The Park Board has) been meeting on this project about a week for the past two months," Park Board Commissioner Ron Motil said. "We think the pool can be completed by next summer."
"It may not be ready to open by Memorial Day" (the traditional opening day of the swimming season), but it should be substantially completed by then."

The board has been wrestling with the problem of how to finance the pool. The bids that came in were well above the $1.877 million approved by voters for the project. The bids were between $300,000 and $400,000 above that amount.
Voters last November approved by a 34-vote margin a bond issue of $1.877 million to finance the new pool project. More than 13,000 votes were cast on the issue.
Motil said the board requested some changes in the scope of the project after receiving bids on the construction of the pool.

"The bids were higher than what we hoped for and higher than the architect anticipated. We are currently negotiating, and hope to have a contract very soon," Motil said.
The Park Board sent the proposed changes in scope to all of the contractors who bid on the project, Motil said.
The board is currently negotiating the changes with the L. Wolf Company, the lowest responsible bidder, to accomplish a price reduction, according to a legal notice published in the Press-Record.

Readers boost Noah's Ark fund

Journal readers have helped The Salvation Army exceed a $2 million goal in its Operation Noah's Ark Flood Relief effort.
As of Monday, more than 9,956 people sent donations to Operation Noah's Ark using envelopes inserted in the Suburban Journals. A total of $317,629 has been donated by Journal readers.
That raises to $2,103,745 the total donations generated through Operation Noah's Ark, which exceeds a $2 million goal that was set when Ross Perot challenged St. Louisans to donate. Perot already has donated $1 million to the Salvation Army for flood relief and said he would kick in another $1 million if St. Louisans matched the amount. Perot representatives will be in St. Louis this week to verify the donations.
However, just because the Noah's Ark Flood Relief Fund

As floodwaters drop, Journals launch project

As the Mississippi and Missouri River floodwaters begin to recede, the Suburban Journals of Greater St. Louis announce a flood relief project that will appear regularly in the newspaper.
It's called "Community Pride, Community Recovery. We're Here To Help." The project is designed to accomplish two distinct goals.
First, the Journals will provide a variety of timely tips and information to residents who have been victimized by the Great Flood of '93. Restoring a flooded home will confront homeowners with challenges they never have faced. From restarting furnaces and air conditioners to drying out waterlogged walls, floors and foundations, the aftermath of the flood will provide a rebuilding challenge.
The "Community Recovery" pages also will offer local businesses an opportunity to reach audiences that sorely need help. Advertisers who have products or services to sell can use the Journals' "Community Recovery" section to carry their message to those who will need them most.
The Journals are making a significant commitment of time and space with the "Community Recovery" pages. The newspaper also has met twice with the Better Business Bureau in order to establish advertising guidelines to make sure companies that advertise in the Journals are trustworthy and above-board. Flood victims do not need to be victimized again by companies that will flock to the flooded areas looking for a fast dollar.
Under the umbrella of the Community Recovery section, The Journals also will feature two special advertising environments. Business will be able to focus their messages on the Lawn & Garden and Home Improvement pages.
In a recent survey of newspaper readership — the Belden Associates St. Louis Market Study — a significant number of Journal readers say they have an intent to purchase lawn and garden and home improvement materials within the next year. As many as 87 percent of Journal readers say they definitely or probably will pur-

Deletion of offenses restricted by new law

SPRINGFIELD — Court supervision, which allows a conviction to be wiped off a person's record, can no longer be granted for certain serious misdemeanor charges.

Gov. Jim Edgar on Friday signed a measure, effective immediately, prohibiting people found guilty of weapons offenses, domestic battery, criminal sexual abuse and similar misdemeanors from receiving court supervision.

Supervision routinely allows a conviction to be wiped from a record if a person commits no additional crime within a certain period.

"These offenders should not believe they get one 'free crime' and a slap on the wrist and then face punishment only when they are convicted a second time for weapons charges and other offenses," Edgar said.

He also approved a measure that will require school districts to provide classroom instruction in nonviolent resolution of conflict.

The legislation would require districts to provide 16 hours per year in fourth through 12th grades.

The program hinges on the state getting $1.7 million for developing materials and conducting teacher workshops.

Edgar noted that U.S. Secretary of Education Richard Riley has proposed federal "safe school" legislation that could make federal money available.

"We have a responsibility to our students to help them understand the causes and consequences of violent behavior and its relationship to drugs and alcohol, and to help them learn to respond to conflict without resorting to violence," Edgar said.

Minicourses on conflict resolution are given in many schools, particularly in the primary grades, although they are not part of the required curriculum.

Conflict resolution has also been emphasized in alternative school programs.

Edgar also signed bills Friday to:

Permit judges to separate dangerous 15- and 16-year-old offenders, tried as adults, from other less violent juveniles in state facilities.

Permit chief circuit judges to authorize the use of electronic eavesdropping in investigations of criminal drug conspiracies.

Allow partial immunity to those who provide information in drug trafficking and murder-for-hire cases.

Make it a felony punishable by up to three years in prison to fire a weapon from a motor vehicle — From the Allentown Telegraph

Man charged with sexual abuse

Byron L. Hammond, 20, of Holiday Mobile Home Park, Granite City, was charged in a Madison County warrant with aggravated criminal sexual abuse.

Collinsville police allege that Hammond had forced intercourse with a girl between 13 and 17 years old on July 3. His bond was set at $10,000.

Foot Notes

by Dr. Armand A. Kachigian

THE LOWDOWN ON HIGH ARCHES

Flat feet seem to get a lot of attention. What if you have the opposite condition, abnormally high arches? Then you've got a problem, too, and it goes by the medical name: P.E.S. — CAUVS. While gracefully soaring arches may look nice on a horse's model, they can be painful and awkward to live with. High arches affect the way you walk, and frequently result in pain in the legs and feet.

Hammertoes and calluses are also common side effects. Symptoms can usually be relieved by conservative measures such as a change in footwear or exercises designed to stretch the foot and keep it supple. If the condition is extreme, various types of surgery may be recommended.

P.S. — Abnormally high arches are caused by an imbalance of the muscles.

County child abuse group touted as a model for state

Madison County's Child Abuse and Protection Task Force could serve as a model for legislation to reform the state's child welfare system, state Rep. Jay Hoffman said.

Hoffman and two other members of a House subcommittee investigating operations of the Department of Children and Family Services in the Metro East met with task force members Thursday to review accomplishments.

The group was begun by State's Attorney William Haine in 1990 to review the relationships between the victims, offenders, social workers and prosecutors.

"I think the Madison County Task Force would be an excellent role model for the entire state," Hoffman said. "What Haine's office has is DCF's, police officers and prosecutors working together for the benefit of the victims. It's very interesting and it's definitely taking a step in the right direction."

Hoffman of Collinsville was joined by Reps. Tom Dart of Chicago and Tom Cross of Oswego, fellow members of the House Metro East Investigative Subcommittee. The three spent Wednesday and Thursday in Madison and St. Clair counties discussing the plight of neglected children with physicians, police officers, probation officers, social workers, judges and foster parents.

The subcommittee, created by Hoffman and Dart to investigate allegations of mismanagement by DCF's, plan to hold a series of formal hearings before drafting legislation next year.

"We're talking with the people who deal with child abuse and neglect on a daily basis to help form ideas for legislation," Hoffman said. "We've visited hospitals, emergency shelters and state's attorney's offices in an effort to come up with the best process for protecting the children and prosecuting the offenders."

Hoffman said the goal of new legislation is to place neglected children in environments where they feel safe and can learn to enjoy themselves.

"We're talking about kids who have already felt the hurt and anguish of neglect," he said. "It's time we take a proactive stance instead of reactive. We're always reacting to reports of abuse and death. It's time to change the Illinois system to prevent the unthinkable."

The legislators are reacting to allegations by DCF's critics that mismanagement and misplaced priorities of the department contribute to one in every three infant deaths in Illinois, Hoffman said.

"The welfare of these children is paramount," Hoffman said. "Our goal is to match these children up with long-term families. The abuse and neglect is not going to end, but we want to provide the best care available. I believe this can be done with the resources we have and without additional state dollars."

Mosely-Braun pleased with action on flood aid

U.S. Sen. Carol Mosely-Braun, D-Illinois, says she is pleased that the Senate followed the Administration's lead by adding to the Emergency Supplemental Appropriations bill.

The Senate Appropriations Committee approved a $4.7 billion disaster assistance package last week, calling for more than a billion over the amount approved by the House.

"The increase agreed to in the Senate makes it more likely that we will be able to meet the growing needs of the disaster victims," Mosely-Braun said. "I'm encouraged that this has been a good bipartisan effort, with all Midwest Senators cooperating to get the help where it is needed."

"This may still not be enough, but it gets us started," she said. "We need to get the bill passed quickly to bring this much-needed assistance for the flood-ravaged areas of Illinois and the Midwest."

Mosely-Braun said she is prepared to vote for the disaster assistance bill scheduled for consideration in the Senate this week. In addition to talking with her Senate colleagues about the dire need for the assistance, Mosely-Braun said her staff is part of an informal task force of Midwest Senate staffers meeting daily for strategic planning, flood damage updates, and continuing discussions on legislative proposals.

Mosely-Braun visited the Metro East area, Jersey County and Grafton, with Vice President Gore and FEMA Director James Witt in July. During August, she plans to travel again to flooded areas of the State.

The Illinois Senator noted that until flood waters recede, it is impossible to completely assess all damages. Preliminary estimates of projected damages in Illinois from State officials are close to one billion dollars, she said.

TRAVEL

Journal Hawaiian tour to include 'The Garden Isle'

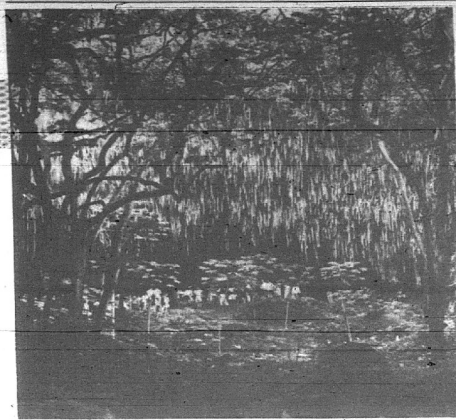

On a January morning in 1778, the ships of Captain James Cook closed in on the island of Kauai, off shore of the village of Waimea, and the crews stared spellbound at green and flowering hillsides.

Today a monument marks Cook's landing on the southwest coast, merely one of dozens of historic sites and only one facet of Kauai's great attractions for visitors.

The Journal's Grand Hawaii tour spends three nights on Kauai; one night at the Hanalei Bay Resort at Hanalei, and two nights at the Hyatt Regency Resort at Poipu Beach. Journal tourists will see all the popular places including a boat ride to the Fern Grotto, a motor coach tour of the island including a stop on the rim of the canyon, and helicopter flightseeing to the Na Pali Cliffs. All sightseeing, meals, deluxe hotels and other services and amenities that have made the Grand Tour successful are included in the 1994 departure.

For information on the Journal's Grand Tours and the Christmas in Hawaii vacation, contact a local Vista Independent Agent or Tenholder Travel at 894-5555 in St. Louis, or 800-555-9910 toll free.

Visitors to the island of Kauai in the Hawaiian Islands may take a short boat trip up the Waialua River to see Fern Grotto, a lovely fern-draped cave.

Work planned on I-55/70

The Illinois Department of Transportation has announced that Interstates 55/70 will be restricted to one lane in each direction from a half-mile north of U.S. 40 near Formosa Junction to three miles west of Illinois 4 near Troy effective Wednesday, Aug. 11, weather permitting.

This restriction is necessary to patch and resurface the roadway.

The work is being performed by Mounds Construction Co. Inc. and Keeley and Sons Inc. of Collinsville and is expected to be completed by December 1993.

Traffic control devices will be in place to assist motorists.

Special needs or requests can be sent by fax at 346-3319 or by TDD at 346-3396.

BAC offering welding course

Bellefonte Area College is offering a preparation course for welders who plan to take the Qualification and Certification of Welding Inspectors (QC) Examination.

The 12-week course is offered at the Granite City Campus, 4950 Maryville Road, on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 1:10 p.m., Aug. 14 through Oct. 30. The American Welding Society (AWS) examination is held approximately one week after the course.

It is designed to review welding inspector's responsibilities, including ability, basic metallurgy and chemistry, inspection processes, codes, standards and specifications, welding procedures, inspection reports and practical test requirements.

Register for the welding examination preparation course, WLDI 256-60, by calling 235-2700, extension 455.

Pool

Motil said the proposed changes will reduce the cost of the project "without significantly changing the integrity of the project."

Among the changes in the plans are a reduction in the size of the pool from 25-meters to 25 yards (shortening the pool by about seven feet); eliminating the planned picket fence around the pool and constructing a chain link fence in its place; eliminating the water current channel feature which was designed for resistance during exercise classes and leisurely raft floating; reducing the size of a pavilion roof over the center section of the building by 980 square feet; and eliminating construction of family pavilions on the pool deck.

Other, less visible changes include a reduction in the number of electrical outlets in the bath house and changes in the construction of maintenance and mechanical areas.

Motil said the construction of the pool can start a few days after a contract is signed, and that the project can be completed in about nine months.

Madison considers inspecting all rental property every year

By Mike Myers
Staff writer

Madison will look into the possibility of establishing a system of yearly inspections of all rental properties in the city. The city currently requires inspections before granting occupancy permits to new tenants. The permit is required before utilities can be turned on, but Alderman Richard George said last week that some landlords have been skirting the occupancy permit requirement by keeping the utilities in the landlord's name.

George said the city recently had problems with trash at a rental residence and "it was in such bad shape no one should be living there."

He said no occupancy permit had been issued for the current tenants and "if our inspectors had seen it, no one would have been allowed to move there."

tainly don't condone anyone abusing a police officer in the performance of their duties," Assistant Police Chief Dave Ruebhausen said.

"It makes it even worse when it is a firefighter involved," Ruebhausen said.

Fire Chief Keith Talley said Tuesday morning that Hoes's personnel file was being reviewed and he was considering disciplinary action is appropriate.

BAC appoints liaison for flood victims

Belleville Area College President Joseph J. Cipili, Ph.D., has appointed Martine Moran as the college's liaison to assist BAC students who have been impacted by the recent floods.

"It is vitally important that Belleville Area College continually attempts to meet the ever-changing needs of the many communities that we serve. Now, with so many of our district residents facing hardships, we want to do everything we can to help them," Cipili said.

Students with questions concerning registration or the payment of bills may call Moran at 1-800-BAC-1531 or 235-2700, ext. 497, between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday-Friday.

"Students who are experiencing difficulty in payment of bills caused by the tragic disaster will be given extended payment plans," Cipili said. "We realize the financial toll that has been inflicted on so many people, and we are most concerned and sympathetic to their plight."

The appointment of Moran is just one of several actions being taken by BAC's three campuses in Belleville, Granite City and Red Bud to assist area residents whose lives have been disrupted by the flood.

BAC will host a Sweet Adelines and Barbershop benefit concert at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 15, at the Varsity Gymnasium. The concert, which is being co-sponsored by BAC and the Belleville News-Democrat, will feature music by the Edge of Illinois Chapter of Sweet Adelines, the Belleville Belle-Notes Barbershop.

"The engineers want to see all of the damage, and then, if they can find no damage, we can reopen. If there is damage, it will be videotaped so that our consulting engineers (at Hardesty and Hanover in New York) can evaluate it."

Local authorities have been sending regular videotapes to the consulting engineers since the bridge closed, Fields said, but he said now the river has dropped enough to allow physical inspection of the bridge.

Venice is heavily dependent on the bridge revenue, but acting bridge manager, Tyrone H. Echols said the city's business interruption insurance will cover all but the first 72 hours of lost revenue.

Fields said the insurance broker has been contacted and the city will soon be filing the claim paperwork.

"Hopefully, we will be getting a check from the insurance company in the near future," he said.

The bridge has been getting hundreds of telephone calls from people who are angry that the bridge is closed, Fields said, but that is good news. "We were not getting any phone calls, that would be bad. Still, we're hoping the calls will stop soon — when the bridge reopens."

City Attorney Casper Nighossian said it may be possible to provide for regular inspections under the city's housing codes, but said, "Any provision for inspections must be enforced and enforced equally."

He said the inspections would have to take place at the designated interval regardless of whether the tenant had changed since the last inspection.

The building and health inspectors already have the right to inspect dwellings any time there is a complaint, Nighossian said.

He suggested that the inspectors be called to make an inspection in situations such as George described.

Police Chief Charlie Bridick and Fire Chief Robbie Robbins both said that the inspectors are called whenever members of their departments find dwellings with apparent health or building violations.

On Friday, Building Inspector Mike Foley and Briggs inspected the building and Foley is expected to recommend that it be condemned.

The aldermen had previously voted to have the city inspectors meet with the Madison school board, but Superintendent Dan Kostenick replied in a letter to the City Council that the board would have to get approval from the regional and county school trustees control all school buildings.

When the officer pushed Hoes away and told him to stop, he grabbed her by the hair, which was in a ponytail, pulled her hat from her head and replaced it with his Harley Davidson hat, the report states.

Hoes continued to laugh at the officer's antics as he pushed her throughout the incident, the report states.

Because the officer was occupied with the initial battery, she did not arrest Hoes at the scene, the report states.

BAC appoints liaison for flood victims

Belleville Area College President Joseph J. Cipili, Ph.D., has appointed Martine Moran as the college's liaison to assist BAC students who have been impacted by the recent floods.

"It is vitally important that Belleville Area College continually attempts to meet the ever-changing needs of the many communities that we serve. Now, with so many of our district residents facing hardships, we want to do everything we can to help them," Cipili said.

Students with questions concerning registration or the payment of bills may call Moran at 1-800-BAC-1531 or 235-2700, ext. 497, between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday-Friday.

"Students who are experiencing difficulty in payment of bills caused by the tragic disaster will be given extended payment plans," Cipili said. "We realize the financial toll that has been inflicted on so many people, and we are most concerned and sympathetic to their plight."

The appointment of Moran is just one of several actions being taken by BAC's three campuses in Belleville, Granite City and Red Bud to assist area residents whose lives have been disrupted by the flood.

BAC will host a Sweet Adelines and Barbershop benefit concert at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 15, at the Varsity Gymnasium. The concert, which is being co-sponsored by BAC and the Belleville News-Democrat, will feature music by the Edge of Illinois Chapter of Sweet Adelines, the Belleville Belle-Notes Barbershop.

"The engineers want to see all of the damage, and then, if they can find no damage, we can reopen. If there is damage, it will be videotaped so that our consulting engineers (at Hardesty and Hanover in New York) can evaluate it."

Local authorities have been sending regular videotapes to the consulting engineers since the bridge closed, Fields said, but he said now the river has dropped enough to allow physical inspection of the bridge.

Venice is heavily dependent on the bridge revenue, but acting bridge manager, Tyrone H. Echols said the city's business interruption insurance will cover all but the first 72 hours of lost revenue.

Fields said the insurance broker has been contacted and the city will soon be filing the claim paperwork.

"Hopefully, we will be getting a check from the insurance company in the near future," he said.

The bridge has been getting hundreds of telephone calls from people who are angry that the bridge is closed, Fields said, but that is good news. "We were not getting any phone calls, that would be bad. Still, we're hoping the calls will stop soon — when the bridge reopens."

On Friday, Building Inspector Mike Foley and Briggs inspected the building and Foley is expected to recommend that it be condemned.

The aldermen had previously voted to have the city inspectors meet with the Madison school board, but Superintendent Dan Kostenick replied in a letter to the City Council that the board would have to get approval from the regional and county school trustees control all school buildings.

When the officer pushed Hoes away and told him to stop, he grabbed her by the hair, which was in a ponytail, pulled her hat from her head and replaced it with his Harley Davidson hat, the report states.

Hoes continued to laugh at the officer's antics as he pushed her throughout the incident, the report states.

Because the officer was occupied with the initial battery, she did not arrest Hoes at the scene, the report states.

At BAC's Granite City Campus, faculty, staff and students have collected to date almost $600 in donations that have been given to the Red Cross chapter of the American Red Cross.

"This donation was given from the heart to aid our flood victims," said Dr. Harold Johnson, vice provost of the Granite City Campus. Donations are still being accepted at the campus.

At the Red Bud Campus, building space has been made available for meetings and storage if necessary. Also, the proceeds from concessions sold at the July 31 summer concert have been given to flood victims and a benefit raffle is planned.

The college's programs and Services to the Community are collecting donations through Aug. 30 at its building at 201 N. Church St. in Belleville.

One woman visiting the cemetery Monday said she had heard about the vandalism and wanted to make sure her mother's grave had not been disturbed.

"I guess it all depends on what you call 'fun,'" another disgruntled visitor said while strolling through the damage.

has exceeded $2 million, it doesn't mean there no longer is a need of funds. The Great Flood of '93 has exceeded all kinds of records, including that of human misery. More money desperately is needed.

Brokers' license courses offered

The Illinois Association of Realtors Licensing and Training Center has announced the following schedule for brokers' license courses, according to Lucinda Schmidt, president of the Granite City Board of Realtors Inc.:

"Contracts and Conveyancing," a 15-hour mandatory broker's course. This course includes the study of real estate law, deed, sales contracts, leasing agreements, liens and their priorities. This course will be Sept. 1 and Sept. 5 from 1 to 3:30 p.m.

"Property Management," a 15-hour elective broker's course. This course includes the principles of properly managing various types of property to gain maximum occupancy rates and net income. Tenant relations are also studied. This course will be Oct. 6 and Oct. 13 from 1 to 3:30 p.m. This course will be given at the Hampton Inn, 9185 S. Dirksen Parkway, Springfield.

"Advanced Principles," a 15-hour mandatory broker's course. This course includes an in-depth study of listing, multiple listing services, closing statements, Illinois license law and the broker-lawyer accord. This course will be Nov. 3 and Nov. 10.

The fee for all of the above courses is $115 for advanced registration and $130 at the door. The above courses will be held at the Illinois Association of Realtors, 3180 Adolph Lane, Springfield, Ill., unless otherwise stated.

For more information or to register, call 1-800-252-2910 or pick up a registration form at the Granite City Board of Realtors Inc., 2001 A. Adams St., Granite City.

Water's back on — but not drinkable — in Alton

Water was flowing once again Friday to about 75,000 users in Alton and nearby areas.

The water may be welcome, but city and water company officials warn that it is not safe to drink, even if boiled.

"Oh, man, yes, it's a help," said Zita Mellicham, a waitress at Wedge Cafe, 600 E. Broadway. "We can only use it for sanitary purposes and I still have to use bottled water for other things, but now my customers can use the restrooms."

"It's great," said Alton Mayor Bob Towse. "People are delighted they can now flush."

Not all customers would regain service at the same time, according to Illinois-American Water Co. Those in the lower elevations of the service area would get water first. Others would regain service as water pressure increases.

Charles Martin of the 800 block of Alton Street is grateful for what he's getting. "We've had to carry water and we have four people in the house," he said.

Water is once again coming from Illinois-American's treatment plant on the Great River Road, shut down since Aug. 1 by Mississippi River floodwaters. Technicians began putting water in the system about 5:30 p.m. Thursday.

Illinois-American spokesman Wayne Schlosser said the plant was not completely knocked out by the floodwaters. "One part on the downstream side is operational," he said.

Schlosser said huge pumps have been set up on the Great River Road to draw water from the operational portion of the plant.

He said the plant may be able to supply enough water to serve the company's customers.

Workshops set on computing, word processing

Workshops on computing, word processing and writing will be conducted during August by the Office of Instructional Services at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The workshops are free, and preregistration is not necessary.

An Introduction to Computers workshop is scheduled Wednesday, Aug. 25, from 12:30 to 2 p.m., and the workshop will be repeated at the same time on Thursday, Aug. 26. The session will be held in Peck Building, Room 1410, and will cover a basic introduction to computers and word processing (Word Perfect).

On Tuesday, Aug. 31, a "How To Get Started Writing a Paper" will be offered from 1:30 to 2:20 p.m. in the Peck Building, Room 6800. This workshop is for those who feel unsure about their writing.

Karen Patty-Graham, director of Instructional Services, said the writing workshop will "demonstrate practical ways of attacking the blank piece of paper and eliminate some of the frustration of beginning a new piece of writing."

Bible school gets under way

Venice sets kindergarten sign-up

Registration for Venice kindergarten students will begin Monday, Aug. 16, in the grade school office. Parents are reminded that all kindergartners, fifth graders and new students are required to have a completed physical examination by the first day of school, Aug. 24. Forms are available in the grade school office.

Students who are new to the district are encouraged to register early so that records may be obtained from their previous school prior to the first day of school.

Grade reports, completed medical records, birth certificates, and proof of residence are required. Parents must accompany new students during registration.

The first day of school (Aug. 24) will be a half-day session for students. School buses will run the regular routes to transport students to and from school.

For further information, parents may call the grade school office at 877-5086 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays.

Tons of tea,

fountains of fruit juice and mega-liters of lemonade offset August's heat and humidity. Summer's libations can attract thirsty palates with their color, refresh with their cooling comfort and replace fluids that have been lost in work or play.

Water in one form or another has been on everyone's minds this summer. Adding a little flavor to this No. 1 refresher tickles the button that makes people grab a snack that offers variety, can supply a bit of nutrition and still quench thirst. Drinks made in a blender are fun for kids to help make. Add one to an everyday lunch of a peanut

AWESOME FRUIT ICE

- 1 cup orange cranberry juice drink
- 1/4 cup tropical fruit salad, drained

In food processor, process juice and fruit until mixture is smooth. Pour into non-metal container. Freeze about 2 hours until just firm. Break into pieces. Process in food processor until smooth. Return mixture to container and freeze until firm. Remove from freezer about 10 minutes before serving.

Makes 6 servings.

COOL DUDE

- 1/2 cup citrus cranberry juice drink
- 1/4 cup orange juice
- 1/4 cup pineapple juice
- 1/2 cup non-fat strawberry frozen yogurt

In blender, blend juice drink, orange and pineapple juice and frozen yogurt for a few seconds on high speed until ingredients are thoroughly combined.

Makes 2 servings.

FIZZLER

- 1/2 cup cranberry juice cocktail
- 1/4 cup lemon-lime club soda
- 1 lime wedge or lime peel curl, for garnish

Pour cranberry juice cocktail into glass with ice. Top with club soda. Garnish with lime.

Makes 1 serving.

FUNKY FRUIT DIP

- 1 cup citrus peach juice drink, divided
- 1 tbsp. cornstarch
- 1/2 cup non-fat vanilla yogurt

Bring 1/2 cup peach drink to boil in medium saucepan. Combine reserved 1/2 cup juice drink with cornstarch. Add to hot drink. Return to boil, whisking constantly until thickened. Pour into small bowl. Cover with plastic wrap, placing wrap directly on sauce. Let cool to room temperature. Stir in yogurt. Chill until serving time.

Makes 4 servings.

BANANA BLINGER

- 1 cup orange cranberry juice drink
- 1/2 cup non-fat vanilla frozen yogurt
- 1/2 banana, sliced

In blender, blend juice drink, frozen yogurt and banana a few seconds on high speed until ingredients are thoroughly combined.

Makes 1 serving.

CRANBERRY SLUSH

- 4 cups cranberry juice cocktail
- Club soda

Freeze cranberry juice cocktail until slushy. Spoon 1/2 cup slush into glass. Top with splash of club soda.

Makes about 6 servings.

Lively Libations

Tea is exceptionally easy to prepare. Americans take advantage of that. On any given day, they drink more than 6.1 million gallons — or 97 1/2 million 8-ounce glasses — of tea. The average is 95 million of these glasses of tea are over ice, but in the summer the number probably seems closer to 95 "gazillion."

The new fruit-flavored teas are easy to enjoy. Of course, it is simple to pop a bottle top to open one, but they also can be tempting and less expensive made with fruit-flavored tea bags or by adding lemonade or fruit juice. Look beyond fresh mint for added flavor. Lemon balm from the garden adds a bit of "wild" taste. Serve it in fancy glasses with the rim dipped in lemon juice, then sugar for a sweet touch. Drop fresh fruit into it along with ice.

Some people worry about getting too much caffeine. Tea has substantially less caffeine than coffee. Herbal teas include herbs, dried fruit and spices for flavor — but no tea. Decaffeinated tea also is a natural for those who want less of the stimulant. For more information about decaffeinated tea, send for a free brochure from: Naturally-Decaffeinated Tea from Lipton, P.O. Box 1100, Grand Rapids, Minn. 55745-1100.

Here are some tips for making iced tea a summer specialty:

Iced tea: Place 4 to 6 tea bags in a glass quart jar or pitcher. Bring fresh cold water to full rolling boil. Pour 4 cups water over tea bags. Brew 3 to 5 minutes to desired strength. Remove tea bags. Pour into ice-filled glasses.

Concentrated iced tea: Place 4 to 5 tea bags in glass quart jar or pitcher. Bring fresh cold water to full rolling boil. Pour 2 cups water over tea bags. Brew 3 to 5 minutes to desired strength. Remove tea bags. Add 2 cups cold water. Pour into ice-filled glasses.

Creamy tea topper: Spoon a scoop of vanilla ice cream or vanilla frozen yogurt into parfait glass filled halfway with iced tea.

Party in a glass: Put fresh fruit or even small cubes of sandwiches or quick bread on end of skewer. Let filled end of skewer stick out of glass of iced tea. Use a deep glass and keep skewer as light as possible to avoid tipping.

Fun tea slush: Fill tall fluted champagne glass with crushed ice. Pour freshly brewed tea on top. Garnish with long citrus twist.

Dash of style: Drape thin twists of lemon or lime rind across glass or add a sprig of fresh mint. Dip glass rim in lemon juice, then in sugar. Freeze small pieces of fruit or fresh mint in water for cubes.

Sangria tea: Cut up fresh seasonal fruits, like strawberries, grapes, apple and orange. Add to glasses of iced tea and top with splash of seltzer. To bring out more fruit flavor, serve tea 2 hours after mixing with fruit and add seltzer just before serving.

Tea refresher: Stir cranberry cocktail or frozen lemonade concentrate into iced tea. For a sweet treat, add a spoonful of jelly or preserves to cup of hot tea and stir slowly to dissolve, then pour over ice.

Celebration tea: Add splash of champagne, ginger ale or flavored seltzer to tall glass of iced tea, or add tea to party punch.

Outdoor summer party menus often call for "beer and bratwurst," but Glen Ellen Winery's Rusty Eddy says anything beer can do for brats, wine can do as well if not better.

He suggests serving summer sausages from the grill with white zinfandel. When simmering bratwurst in the wine, it cooks in less time, because the wine is less acidic than beer.

He and the California winery try to make wine more user-friendly and show that it not a mysterious addition to a meal or picnic, but simply part of it. The winery has published "a slightly irreverent guide" for enjoying wine. "Wine Without an Attitude" is available for $3 from "Glen Ellen Winery, P.O. Box 3270, Department RB, Phoenix, Ariz. 85072."

"Wine is moving out of its own aisle and into the deli, salad and produce sections of grocery stores," he says. "Up to 95 percent of the wine purchased is consumed the same day. After all, in a half-hour you run home, refrigerate it 30 minutes and it is ready to go."

Here are some of Eddy's tips — which defy some old-fashioned rules — for enjoying wine with summer meals:

- If chilling a wine makes it more attractive, chill it. "If you want to put an ice cube in your chardonnay, it's OK. Colder temperatures will cut down on the aromatics, but they might offset the heat, too," he says.

- A varietal wine is the namesake of the grape from which it is made. Its fruit flavors are made to be enjoyed now, not years from now. The grapes may come from different regions or even different countries.

- It has been found that even corked wines do not need to be moist on all sides because they hold moisture in themselves. Thus, wine with a screw top should not affect the wine either.

- Wine marketed in small bottles comes from the same barrels as that bottled in large quantities. The small bottles let people try different varieties and enjoy small quantities at a time.

- When using wine instead of beer, remember that wine's alcohol concentration is greater than beer, but does not have the carbonation. Some people prefer sparkling wine with snacks like pretzels and popcorn, because it has a bubbly feel.

- Chardonnay is very popular now because of its versatility. There are enough varieties available now to drink a different one every day of the year.

- Red wine — traditionally used with beef because the alcohol and tannin helped cut the richness of the fat — still is a favorite. Eddy recommends merlot with meat that is light in fat. He calls it "cherry raspberry and not overly tannic in taste."

- His favorite for all-around usage — from hot dogs to pizza and picnics — is white zinfandel.

Recipe

Chicken
with peach salsa

- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1 can (14.5 oz.) whole tomatoes, drained, chopped
- 2 cup diced peaches
- 1/2 cup peach preserves
- 1 stick cinnamon
- 1 tbs. chopped fresh or 1 tsp. dried cilantro
- 1 tsp. chopped fresh ginger root or 1/4 tsp. ground ginger
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1/2 tsp. pepper
- 3 whole chicken breasts, skinned, boned, halved
- 3 cups cooked rice

Spray medium nonstick saucepan with nonstick cooking spray. Heat over medium heat until hot. Add onion. Cook and stir 3 minutes. Add tomato, peaches, peach preserves, cinnamon, cilantro, ginger, salt and pepper. Bring to boil. Reduce heat. Simmer, stirring occasionally, 20 to 30 minutes until sauce thickens. Keep warm. When ready to serve, remove and discard cinnamon stick. Broil or grill chicken 4 to 6

Morning fruit nibbles give nosher top tastes

There are many ways to get full use of fresh summer fruit in the morning.

• Spread whipped neufchatel (light cream) cheese on whole wheat toast and top with sliced fresh plum.

• Puree plums with a little lemon juice, sugar and cinnamon. Use to top pancakes and waffles.

• Top a favorite hot or cold breakfast cereal with plain or cinnamon-sugared fresh plums.

• Spoon chopped plums into flavored yogurt.

• Layer yogurt, chopped plums and granola for a breakfast parfait.

inches from heat 18 to 23 minutes until chicken is fork-tender and juices run clear, turning once halfway through cooking.

Serve chicken on top of rice. Spoon salsa over chicken.

Lefty golfers appear to be on right course

I do not know if you had access to it, but the other day I read a medical report out of St. Paul, Minn., indicating that the right hand is controlled by the left side of the brain, but control of the left hand is shared by both sides of the brain.

Sounds like a lefthander has an edge if he or she has twice the brain usage for assistance.

THAT'S WHY I enjoyed speaking with Moe Croak of Belleville, the recently named president of the Illinois State Lefthanders Golf Association.

A member of the organization for 23 years, Croak is eager to increase membership. He urges any golfer in the Southwestern Illinois area to contact him at 538-5508. Dues are only $5 per year, but Croak thinks the state lefty-righty tournament each year in mid-July is one of the highlights of the golf season.

"Any righty can phone me to enter that tourney, especially since we have lefthanded players who need righthanders for that portion of the tourney," said Croak.

This summer's 8-flight champion of the lefty best-ball portion of the tourney was Allan Carter of Cahokia. George Fisher of Belleville was third in the same flight and Roger James of Belleville finished fourth in the A Flight.

BILL BART OF Peoria was the state champion with a 153 score, followed by Tom Rodde of Chicago at 156.

In the lefty-righty two-man best-ball, John Rinehart and Cecil Garland of Belleville finished fourth in the championship flight while Tim Donald and Matt Mueller of Cahokia finished second in A-Flight, followed by Croak and Bob Gaddedy.

Other contestants from Southern Illinois included Bob Moore, John Metzler, Dick Hays, Jim Starr, Bob Gaddedy, Jim Wintjen, Don Schloemann, Dennis Luehoer, Rich King and Harold Williams.

Croak indicated that 200 golfers are on the lefthanders association mailing list, but he's eager in his first year as president to hype matters.

A 1952 GRADUATE of East St. Louis Senior High, where he participated in baseball and cross country, Croak and he began playing in a commercial golf league at Grand Marais in 1962. He is now a member of Moe's Maudraders in a league at Clinton Hill.

He has given no indication if he believes lefthanders are smarter than righthanders, but admitted that in one state tourney he had to play as a player that in the lefthanders event he could not putt righthanded.

I'm not sure which part of the player's brain dominated in that case, but Croak is eager to take more players from Southern Illinois to the Prairie Vista Golf Course in Bloomington to show those northerners who is best at golf.

EXTRA INNINGS: Reminder to anyone wanting to send Toronto Blue Jays Coach Rich Hacker a get-well card: Hack was injured July 11 in an auto accident at the approach of the Martin Luther King Bridge on the Missouri side of the Mississippi River and remains hospitalized for head and ankle injuries.

He can be reached at the St. Louis University Medical Center, 3635 Vista, St. Louis, Mo., 63110-0250.

Hacker played for Richard "Icky" Jones at SIU-Carbondale. Jones was a featured speaker at Tuesday's banquet to kick off the state American Legion tournament.

OVERTIME: Todd Carter of Edwardsville's Tommy's recently won the MVP of the Mon-Clair men's baseball league all-star game at Waterloo, marking his second MVP of the season. He shared that honor with Granite City's Jamie Hogan in the Valmeyer Mid-Summer Classic.

The MVP recipients will be among those recognized Aug. 28 when the league holds its annual banquet at the Millstadt VFW, a change from previous years when the event was held at the end of November.

Harshany blanks Bullets

Granite City pitcher dominating in 3-0 win

By Tony Panozzo
Staff writer

Granite City pitcher Brian Harshany left the mound Sunday with another shutout and the attitude that has turned him into arguably the Mon-Clair League's top hurler this year.

"I don't want to give up a hit at all," said Harshany, who surrendered just four hits to East Alton Bon-Air in seven innings of work. "My goal every time is to shut the opponent out."

FOR THE SECOND time this year, Harshany shut down East Alton, one of the league's top offensive teams. Harshany and the Eagles blanked the Silver Bullets 3-0 last month in the title game of the Valmeyer Mid-Summer Classic.

In that game, Harshany gave up seven hits and gave into several trouble spots. In Sunday's 3-0 shutout, Harshany was much more dominating. East Alton managed to get a runner to second base on only one occasion.

Mark Burris hit a leadoff double in the third inning, and Harshany (8-1) fanned two of the next three hitters.

Each time Harshany allowed a hit, he responded with a quick out. The righthander challenged the Silver Bullets with a blazing fastball and finished with nine strikeouts.

"When you get into trouble, you go to your best stuff," said player/manager Daren DeFew, who caught Harshany. "Today, his fastball was working. He's throwing the ball well."

Eagles clinch top playoff seed with sweep over East Alton

By Tony Panozzo
Staff writer

The Granite City Eagles took a key step toward defending their Mon-Clair League playoff title Sunday by wrapping up the No. 1 seed for the postseason.

By sweeping East Alton, the Eagles improved to 20-3 and will have the home-field advantage throughout the playoffs, which begin Saturday. Granite City was paired against O'Fallon, the No. 8 seed, for the first round.

THE EAGLES WON the league title last year with the No. 2 seed. Waterloo finished ahead of Granite City in the regular-season standings and earned the top seed, but lost in the first round.

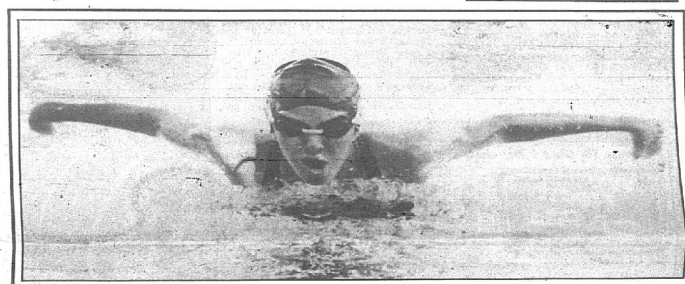

This year, however, the Eagles have surpassed the Buds in the regular season. Pitcher Brian Harshany, the winning pitcher in the second game Sunday, said the Eagles are poised to make another run at the title.

"That's our goal," Harshany said. "Going into the playoffs, we're definitely the team to beat. Everybody better aim high."

"We're playing well right now," manager Daren DeFew said.

THE REST OF the pairings are Millstadt at Edwardsville, East St. Louis at Waterloo and East Alton at Valmeyer. Earning the top playoff seed is yet another first for Granite City. This year, the Eagles won the St. Clair Division for the first time and also won their first-ever title at the Valmeyer (See PLAYOFFS, Page 3D)

Bats carry Belleville to Fifth Division title

By Keith Farroll
Correspondent

The Belleville Hilgards advanced to the American Legion state baseball tournament after claiming the Fifth Division title last weekend.

Belleville, 34-8, is scheduled to play the First Division winner at 1 p.m. today at Longacre Park in Fairview Heights, the site of the state tournament. The Hilgards will be at state for the first time since 1975.

AFTER BEATING Tri-City in the District 22 finale, the Hilgards advanced to the Fifth Division championship game Saturday at Marissa and defeated the host team 5-2 behind Roy Tippett's overpowering pitching and the team's timely hitting.

Tippett allowed only six hits and three walks while striking out 10 batters through nine innings.

Tippett said the team's offensive outburst has been the backbone behind the team's recent success.

"Since the playoffs started, the whole team's been hitting a ton, especially (Dwayne) Johnston and (Tim) Muehl," Tippett said. "When you are pitching and you have those types of guys on the team, you have a lot of confidence. Even if you get in trouble, you know the bats can help you out."

"EVERYBODY HAS picked it up a notch and we are playing with a lot of confidence," Muehl said.

The bats certainly helped Belleville's cause in the Fifth Division title game.

In the bottom of the first inning, Matt Belosi hit a one-out double to drive in Sean Keefe and Muehl and give Belleville an early lead. In the third inning, Keefe singled, Stole second and third base and then scored on a wild pitch. Also in the third inning, Johnston singled in Muehl, who reached on an error.

BELLEVILLE CLOSED out the scoring in the fifth inning when Muehl rounded the bases on a solo home run. As of late, just standing in the batter's box has been dangerous for Muehl. In last week's Illinois-Missouri All-Star game, Muehl fouled a ball off his nose and broke it. But that had little effect on his performance in the Fifth Division tournament, as Muehl was named the Most Valuable Player.

"The MVP really surprised me because the entire team seemed to do the job, whatever the situation," Muehl said. "The nose didn't seem to bother me at first because the next day my whole face was swollen, but I could see fine. I didn't have trouble breathing, so I knew I could play."

Three first-time winners cross finish line at Tri-City Speedway

By Steve Birmingham
Correspondent

Three first-time winners graced victory lane Saturday in the Clark Oil Racing Series at Tri-City Speedway.

BILL MASTERS SWEPT the Allied Auto Racing Association (AARA) Limited Sportsman division after coming close several times in the season's first half. Masters started deep in the pack in the main but by the end of ten laps was challenging for the third spot. A caution for two separate incidents closed the field and allowed Masters to gain ground on the leaders.

He needed just three laps to take the lead but another yellow flag brought the pack right on his heels. Masters flew on the restart and never looked back.

It was Masters' first AARA feature win this year after posting one second-place and three third-place finishes. He also won his heat and the dash.

Joe Volluz won a wild Street Stock main that saw the outcome in doubt the entire distance. It was Volluz's first feature win this year after posting one second-place finish in a main event.

BUTCH NUTAUT SPED to his first American Sprint Car Series (ASCS) 360 Sprint main event. Nutaut jumped into the first turn at the start of the first 360 feature and held off the challenges of Terry Ostermeier and Jeff Galas. Galas couldn't make the final pass of Nutaut, but he did hold off the charging Todd Bishop. Nutaut's victory came after one second-place and four third-place finishes this season.

Tommy Scott led almost one full lap in the second 360 main but broke entering the third turn and dropped out. Al Wissmiller led going into the first turn on the restart, but Bishop took command on the backstraight. Three laps later, Bishop ran out to a full straightaway lead over Wissmiller and Galas. It was Bishop's ninth win this season.

John Stanton posted his third win of the year in the Pro Stock class. A wild and woolly affair, the Pro Stock main went only a few laps before the yellow flag flew. After several caution periods, the race settled down and

Sporting Geography spells winning program

By Grant Peters
Staff writer

The way St. Louis University soccer coach Joe Clarke sees it, Sporting Geography is a big bonus.

"I've said it before and I will say it again, Sporting Geography is just a great thing," Clarke said. "It helps build identity to our program and individual identity to the players."

KAREN FOX STARTED Sporting Geography a couple of years ago as a way for children in grades 5-8 to learn geography through sports. And because of schools like St. Louis U. and many others that are climbing aboard, the program figures to be a major success.

"I'm still very excited that everyone involved at this school decided to get involved because it is such a neat program," said Clarke, who has turned the Billikens into a perennial Division I power. "All the materials are provided, and the kids seem to naturally respond to it."

Fox said that at worst, Sporting Geography enables kids to get a grasp of college and all the benefits surrounding it. Clarke couldn't agree more.

"I think that it does make the young kids more aware of college and its benefits, and hopefully some of them will wind up

Now, Mueh is wearing a special batting helmet with a face guard. It seems to be working.

IN THE PAST three games with the Hilarids, Mueh has gone 7-for-14 with a home run in each game.

"The face guard probably helps me keep my head on the ball and it makes me concentrate a lot more," Mueh said.

Belleville defeated Orient Express 15-6 last Wednesday and Metropolis 5-2 last Friday before dismissing Marissa in the double elimination tournament.

Legion Auxiliary Unit 307 meets

Venice-Madison Unit 307, American Legion Auxiliary, held its first meeting for the new fiscal year on Aug. 2 with the President Kate Buechele as hostess. Assisting the president was Jane and Judy Madras. Dessert was served to 27 members and three guests.

Following dessert, the business meeting was conducted by President Buechele. Special guest for the evening was Rita Marie DeRuntz, recipient of a Past President Nursing Scholarship. DeRuntz will be attending St. Louis University School of Nursing.

Betty Wallace, first vice president, collected for the Auxiliary Emergency Fund amounting to $15.45.

LaVelle Stephens, community service chairman, announced the bingo games at the Colonial Nursing Home on Aug. 12 and Colonades Nursing Home on Aug. 19.

Norma Hillmer, membership chairman, announced having half our dues paid for the new year of 1994. Two new members were introduced: Connie Almos and Judy McCloud. The membership party will be held at 6:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 4. Mary Ballantine, Co-chairman for V.A. and R., reported sending some get-well cards and sympathy cards to members.

Dorothy Hinson, Co-chairman of V.A. and R., presented field service cards to the following: Betty Allen, Mary Helling, Dolores Weiss, Pauline Messinger, Bette Nugent, LaVelle Stephens, Joyce Pittenger, Dolores Stalecker, Lettie Taylor and Kate Buechele.

The Certificate of Appreciation from OATH was passed for all members to see. This was given to Unit 307 for services to their handicapped clients.

A report was given on the activities and awards at the department convention held in July in Peoria. The six members representing the convention, Convention will be in Springfield, Ill., in 1994.

The attendance prize was won by Dorothy Hinson. Closing prayer was given by Melba Duncan, evening service. President Buechele adjourned the meeting. Next meeting will be 7 p.m. Monday, Sept. 13.

Dancer Dunham to lecture at Mo. Historical Society

Renowned dancer-choreographer Katherine Dunham will be participating in two sessions of "Conversations with Katherine Dunham."

Today Dunham will discuss "Reflections on Survival" and on Aug. 18, Dunham will discuss "Occurrence of Cults Among Deprived Peoples." Both lectures will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the Missouri Historical Society's Library and Collections Center.

Dunham, who received her bachelor's, master's and doctorate degrees from the University of Chicago, has earned international fame and respect for her contributions to the performing arts.

The programs are being presented in conjunction with the Dunham technique seminar that will be held this year at University City High School.

The lectures are open to the public and tickets will be sold at the door. Tickets are $7; $5 for MHS members.

Horoscope

Wednesday, Aug. 11, 1993
Collaborative vibes get a boost today, promoting enthusiastic discussion and a general spirit of sportsmanship. Job interviews are lucky. Even if you don't get the job this time, you may get good tips for further searching. Long-distance and international communications are favored. Explore the latest technology. Learn to use a fax or other newfangled device today.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Express yourself in writing. If an old friend has a new idea to share, be willing to listen. Independent action wins kudos from the boss. Take initiative at home, too, and everyone will respect you.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Searches pay off, even those through haystacks. Likely stories are heard; don't scoff until all the facts are in, however, as the truth may surprise you. Analyze before making decisions.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Extremes are to be avoided, except where romance is concerned. Someone is extremely eager to be with you, and that's good. Strive for harmony in partnerships; use your clever humor.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Severe emotional weather can take its toll on health; water is magic therapy, so pamper yourself with a long, hot bath. Help from the family includes material support, as well as big hugs.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Popularity always improves your outlook, and now that someone terrific thinks you're sexy, the world appears bright. Enjoy the kids tonight; helping with homework can be fun. Fellow Leo brings luck.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Aug. 11). Partnership matters improve in August, because communications are clearer; keep money out of friendships through September, and you'll keep the friend. Buy a home only with advice of experts in October. Intuition leads you to love and money in November and December. Next January and February, you get a chance to improve the value of property, as well as career future.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Express confidence to family members out loud; your opinion matters greatly, and we all need encouragement. The job outlook is bright; ask for that raise. A bank account opened now is lucky.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22). Romance isn't the only route to happiness; you'll enjoy camaraderie of career peers greatly over the next few years, and the loyalty of friends is a strong kind of security. Listen to Scorpio.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21). Exceptional conditions at work may cause you to forget appointments for this evening; check your calendar. Dreams of the future are on the mind of your boyfriend or girlfriend; be sure you know what's expected.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). A friend on same wavelength may share profitable enterprise with you soon. Attend all meetings, or join a class. Team playing is favored. So is a chat with lawyer or doctor.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Wait to travel or to start new projects, if possible. Decisions on pending work are favored, as is family leadership. You can teach an old or young dog any trick in the book today; you've got a knack.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Stretch those muscles, and if you take a friend on the jogging trail with you, it's even more fun. Impress the family with your dependability, but don't get taken advantage of.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). Even the most exciting job gets boring once in a while; stick to routine anyway. In-depth investigation of a mystery is favored. If it's health problem, you'll finally have a diagnosis.

Ford enjoyed Chicago filming of 'The Fugitive'

By Harry Hamm
Correspondent

Harrison Ford says he enjoyed returning to his hometown of Chicago during filming of "The Fugitive."

The movie is based on the television series of the same name. The series aired in the 1960s and starred David Janssen as Dr. Richard Kimble, a physician on the run after he was wrongfully convicted of murdering his wife.

Ford, 51, said returning to Chicago to film the big-screen version of "The Fugitive" was a treat.

"It's a city of neighborhoods," he said. "We could get the grittiness, we could get the flash of the architecture, the charm of the lake. It has it all."

Ford prepared for his movie role as a physician by spending several days with doctors at the University of Chicago Hospitals, making rounds and observing surgical procedures.

However, Ford said his preparation went beyond mere technical observations.

"What I had to do was gather enough elements so there was believable character development within Kimble's course of discovery toward the truth."

Ford said he wanted to convey Kimble's altruism and, most important, his genuine love for his murdered wife.

"Kimble is happily married," he said. "He and his wife depend on each other rather than on the people around them, which makes her death all the more painful and makes him more driven to find the real killer."

Ford said it was humorous shooting a scene in which he is shown trying to escape from authorities by slipping into the annual St. Patrick's Day parade as it winds through the Loop area of downtown Chicago.

"It was the real parade and these were real marchers, not actors," Ford said.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Searches pay off, even those through haystacks. Likely stories are heard; don't scoff until all the facts are in, however, as the truth may surprise you. Analyze before making decisions.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Extremes are to be avoided, except where romance is concerned. Someone is extremely eager to be with you, and that's good. Strive for harmony in partnerships; use your clever humor.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Severe emotional weather can take its toll on health; water is magic therapy, so pamper yourself with a long, hot bath. Help from the family includes material support, as well as big hugs.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Popularity always improves your outlook, and now that someone terrific thinks you're sexy, the world appears bright. Enjoy the kids tonight; helping with homework can be fun. Fellow Leo brings luck.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Aug. 11). Partnership matters improve in August, because communications are clearer; keep money out of friendships through September, and you'll keep the friend. Buy a home only with advice of experts in October. Intuition leads you to love and money in November and December. Next January and February, you get a chance to improve the value of property, as well as career future.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Express confidence to family members out loud; your opinion matters greatly, and we all need encouragement. The job outlook is bright; ask for that raise. A bank account opened now is lucky.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22). Romance isn't the only route to happiness; you'll enjoy camaraderie of career peers greatly over the next few years, and the loyalty of friends is a strong kind of security. Listen to Scorpio.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21). Exceptional conditions at work may cause you to forget appointments for this evening; check your calendar. Dreams of the future are on the mind of your boyfriend or girlfriend; be sure you know what's expected.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). A friend on same wavelength may share profitable enterprise with you soon. Attend all meetings, or join a class. Team playing is favored. So is a chat with lawyer or doctor.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Wait to travel or to start new projects, if possible. Decisions on pending work are favored, as is family leadership. You can teach an old or young dog any trick in the book today; you've got a knack.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Stretch those muscles, and if you take a friend on the jogging trail with you, it's even more fun. Impress the family with your dependability, but don't get taken advantage of.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). Even the most exciting job gets boring once in a while; stick to routine anyway. In-depth investigation of a mystery is favored. If it's health problem, you'll finally have a diagnosis.

'The Fugitive' offers slick action, pacing, mystery

By Harry Hamm
Correspondent

It is hard to think of any film released this summer to more eagerly anticipate than "The Fugitive," except for possibly "Jurassic Park."

Granted, "The Firm" was propelled by the popularity of the book on which it is based. But I predict legions of people who remember the television series "The Fugitive" will flock to see the big-screen version.

The TV series told the story of Dr. Richard Kimble's frustrating search for the one-armed murderer of his wife (over four years and 120 episodes). Kimble, of course, was wrongfully convicted of the murder.

The slick action, pacing and mystery of the film version should pack in audiences for weeks. "The Fugitive" could become the second highest grossing film of the summer, and perhaps the entire year.

Harrison Ford is the perfect big-screen version of the physician on the run. Tommy Lee Jones is relentless as U.S. Marshal Sam Gerard who doesn't care if Ford might be innocent. He just wants to get his man.

The large supporting cast was splendidly chosen. Andrew Davis' high-octane direction provides constant excitement. The stunt work is eye-popping, and the comic relief is well-placed and effective. This movie is a satisfying experience, well worth the money and worthy of a second viewing.

"The Fugitive" is rated PG-13 for violence. It has a running time of 133 minutes.
